DETAILED ACTION

This is a continuation of the U.S. Patent Application Serial Number 09/654,571, filed September 1, 2000, now pending.

This Office action is in response to the Preliminary Amendment filed July 28, 2003 which has been entered in-part because of the incorrect submitted serial number of the instant's parent case. It should have been –09/654,571—instead of “09/654,471”. Correction is respectfully required.

Double Patenting

1. Claim 1 of this application conflict with claim 1 of Application No. 09/654,571. 37 CFR 1.78(b) provides that when two or more applications filed by the same applicant contain conflicting claims, elimination of such claims from all but one application may be required in the absence of good and sufficient reason for their retention during pendency in more than one application. Applicant is required to either cancel the conflicting claims from all but one application or maintain a clear line of demarcation between the applications. See MPEP § 822.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Brimberg (U.S. Patent No. 4,652,239).

Art Unit: 2671

As per dependent claim 1, Brimberg teaches a method for producing a landscape plan a property comprising a step of defining a set of generic plant categories (col.4, lines 64-66), a step of assigning a corresponding unique symbol for each generic plant category, defining a set of unique symbols (col.2, lines 32-47), a step of receiving from a customer a survey of the property, a list of desired landscape characteristics for the property (col.5, lines 14-30), a list and a step of generating the landscape plan for the property, the landscape plan using the unique symbols to indicate locations on the property where plants should be located (col.2, lines 41-47; col.4, lines 33-47; and col.3, lines 43-55).

It should be noticed that Brimberg fails to teach receiving a photograph of the property. Rather, Brimberg receives a sheet of drafting of the property (col.6, lines 7-11). However, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Brimberg system by using the photograph of the property instead of the drafting in order to make it more efficient since it would have eliminated the process of hand-drawing of the property by simply taking a photograph of it as now claimed.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

The reference of Kamm (U.S. Patent No. 3,785,065) is cited because it shows a landscape kit.

Art Unit: 2671
